Dear Friends in Christ,

As many of you know, I celebrated my birthday this past Friday, October 11. I am officially 41 years old. Thank you for the many birthday greetings. Also, as the main part of the renovation is preparing for and pouring concrete, I will not be putting out new updates for the time being. You will be able to see the work as it happens.

As we approach elections in November, our Bishop Soto has asked us to reflect on our participation in the political process of our nation. This week is our third week where I will share information from bulletin inserts created by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. We have read so far about the importance of the Church in public life and the Dignity of the Human Person. Today we reflect on the second principle of Catholic Social Teaching, the Common Good:

The Common Good is “the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily.”¹ Human dignity is respected and the common good is fostered only if human rights are protected and basic responsibilities are met. Every human being has a right to life, a right to religious freedom, and a right to have access to those things required for human decency.

Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities—to ourselves, to our families, to the larger society, and to the earth. In short, we should seek “to build that kind of society where it is easier for people to be good.”

In the midst of a “throwaway world” in which some members of the human family “can be readily sacrificed for the sake of others considered worthy of a carefree existence,” Pope Francis urges us to build a “culture of encounter” in which those most in need receive our greatest concern and attention. We must “place at the center of all political, social and economic activity the human person, who enjoys the highest dignity, and respect for the common good.”

As we seek to imitate the Good Samaritan, who was neighbor to all, we pursue the Common Good in order that every individual and all people can flourish.

- Marriage and the family are the central institutions of social life – the primary school of virtue, where we first experience common rather than merely individual goods – and so these institutions should be supported and strengthened.

- Likewise, as one human family dwell- ing in our common home, we must hear “both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” and respond to climate change with actions to better protect creation for our brothers and sisters now and in generations to come.

- Accepting the entire world as a gift from the Father, and as our common home includes accepting our bodies as God’s gift, whereas thinking that we enjoy absolute power over our own bodies turns, often subtly, into thinking that we enjoy absolute power over creation.

- We recognize and protect the right to religious liberty, our first and most cherished freedom. The protection of conscience and religious liberty is an indispensable element of the common good – a fundamental human right that knows no geographical boundaries.

- While the common good embraces all, those who are weak, vulnerable, and most in need deserve special concern, which the Church describes as the preferential option for the poor. Laws and policies must prioritize those who struggle to make ends meet and must preserve the social safety net and promote decent jobs, affordable housing, and childcare.

May God bless you this week!

Parish Campus Renovation Project Pledge Progress

Thank you to all who have made a pledge towards our Parish Campus Renovation Project. We have about 91 pledges so far and I am hoping we can increase that in the coming weeks. While we have started out reasonably well, I am hopeful we can increase our participation quite a bit and raise $200,000 to help pay for a portion of the cost of this first phase. Our ability to fundraise will impact how soon we can do the next phase of the renovation. I hope the average household can pledge $1,000 for this year. Some I realize will be able to do less. But some of us can do more. Please prayerfully consider how you can help us make this pledge drive successful. As always, if you have any questions, please reach out to Beth or Fr. Colin at the Parish Office.
