Dear Friends in Christ,

You may have noticed last week we redesigned parts of our bulletin to emphasize The Clear Path of Discipleship, a framework to making Missionary Disciples in our parish. This involves places for the following: 1. Relationship building and growing trust (Connect) 2. Conversion and decision for Christ (Encounter) 3. Growth and development as a disciple (Grow) 4. Formation in evangelization and making disciples (Thrive). Also, we wanted to focus a bit better on Corporal Works of Mercy in the parish as well as opportunities for Healing. This leaves a little less space for upcoming events but it will help communicate to us all what we are focused on as a parish.

Ann Marie, our muralist for the three Archangels, wrote the following summary. I have included a portion of it:

St. Raphael is one of the three Archangels recently completed at St. Katharine Drexel Catholic Church in Sutter Creek, CA. He is portrayed as a traveler, a representation rooted in the Book of Tobit from the Bible, where he is known for healing with a fish, which he holds in the artwork. Accompanying him is a dog, inspired by the pastor's dog, Angus, and also referenced in the Biblical narrative. The background pattern behind Raphael draws from Medieval Catholic Art traditions, where patterns behind figures symbolize "Heaven," reflecting its ordered and mathematical nature. The use of gold in the artwork further signifies the divine realm. In this depiction, Raphael steps out of his heavenly space into our world's brokenness, illustrated by the cracked stonework. Additionally, the butterfly and dragonfly in the artwork symbolize rebirth, healing, and eternal life.

St. Gabriel is one of the three Archangels mentioned in the Bible and serves as a messenger from God, appearing in both the Old and New Testaments. His most notable appearances include delivering messages to the Virgin Mary and Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist. In art, Gabriel is often depicted in the Annunciation scene, typically dressed in blue or white and holding lilies, which symbolize purity and divine favor. The phrase "Hail Mary, Full of Grace" originates from two passages in the Gospel of Luke, where the angel Gabriel greets Mary. This prayer has become a central element of Catholic devotion, emphasizing Mary's role as the Mother of God and asking for her intercession.

Here, Gabriel's splendor is depicted as it radiates through his brilliant white robe and wings as he prepares to visit Mary. His outer robe is a brilliant blue. In his hand, he carries a bouquet of lilies. He emerges from the heavenly realm, illustrated by a golden pattern that draws from Medieval Sacred Catholic art to represent Heaven. Gabriel's mouth is slightly open, indicating that he is about to speak. The banner he holds displays the Latin phrase of his greeting: "Hail Mary, Full of Grace." As is typical in Catholic Medieval renderings of angels, Gabriel is barefoot.

St. Michael, the warrior angel, is renowned as the Archangel who triumphed over Satan, casting him into the abyss. In this artwork, I have portrayed him in armor, and I have rendered him barefoot in keeping with angels portrayed in Sacred Art in the Middle Ages. As a nod to my background in Iconography, his inner garment is green while his outer robe is red, consistent with the colors used to portray St. Michael in icons. He is descending from the heavenly realm, and is spearing Satan, depicted as a dragon, before casting him out of Heaven. The vibrant colors used for Satan are both brilliant and beautiful, aligning with the tradition that Satan, once known as Lucifer ("Light-Bearer"), often disguises himself as something alluring to deceive and confuse humanity.

St. Michael the Archangel holds a revered position within the Roman Catholic tradition, symbolizing courage, protection, and divine intervention. His origins can be traced back to early Jewish texts, where he is recognized as the chief among angels and archangels, tasked with the guardianship of Israel. In the Book of Revelation, St. Michael engages in a cosmic battle against Satan, ultimately casting him out of heaven.

May God bless you this week!

Parish Campus Renovation Project Pledge Progress

GOAL: $200,000

Thank you to all who have made a pledge towards our Parish Campus Renovation Project. We have received $121,325 in pledges toward our goal of raising $200,000 to help pay for a portion of this first phase. This is an excellent start, and I am hopeful that more of you will be willing to join in this seminal effort to beautify the St. Katharine Drexel campus.

Our ability to raise funds will impact how soon we can start the next phase of the renovation. An average household pledge of $1,000 for this year amounts to less than the cost for a daily cup of coffee in California. While I realize some may be able to pledge less, others may be able to pledge more. Please prayerfully consider how you can help us make this pledge drive successful. As always, if you have any questions, please reach out to Beth or Fr. Colin at the Parish Office.

THE CLEAR PATH OF DISCIPLESHIP

*The Clear Path of Discipleship lays out our parish plan for how each of us can move through the stages of spiritual development to becoming a fruitful and missionary disciple and fulfill our parish purpose - To know Christ and to make Him known. Connect — Encounter — Grow — Thrive

GROW

Interested in a Small Group?

A Small Group is a gathering of 4 to 10 people who gather at least monthly to grow as Christian disciples, live life together, and learn more about their Catholic Christian faith. Christianity is not meant to be lived alone and small Groups are excellent places to grow once we have made a decision to follow Christ and want to make Him the center of our lives. Feel free to reach out to Stan and Linda Renzelman at 209-781-5809 to find a Small Group for you.

THRIVE

Interested in a Discipleship Quad?

A Discipleship Quad is a group of four people who journey together as disciples through weekly gatherings of fellowship, ongoing conversion, and learning. This 12-month path of accompaniment fosters growth through prayer, accountability, and authentic relationships. For more information you can reach out to Ellen at familylife@amadorcatholic.com or call 209-223-2970.

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY

Be Merciful, Just As Your Father is Merciful — Luke 6:36

Outreach The Corporal Works of Mercy give us a model for how we should treat others with their bodily needs, as if we were Christ in disguise. Our parish has several outreach ministries that demonstrate Corporal Works of Mercy. All groups welcome new volunteers.

See the list of Ministries and Groups on page 6 for more information or to help. Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Vincen-tians see the face of Christ in all whom they serve, offering person-to-person services to the needy and suffering. The organization invites all parishioners who may feel the call to help others.

Break Bread With Friends. BBWF is an ecumenical ministry that serves breakfast to anyone needing a morning meal. Bag lunches and fellowship are also freely given.

St. Pat's Pantry. This is another ecumenical ministry, providing dinner and fellowship every Thursday.
